

The background is a complex collage. It features a woman's face in a dark, textured, almost charcoal-like style. She is wearing large, dark-rimmed sunglasses. The lenses of the sunglasses are filled with a vibrant orange color, overlaid with a detailed illustration of an orange slice. The woman's hair is dark and voluminous. Surrounding the face are various elements: a large, bright orange slice of an orange is positioned in the upper right corner. Tropical leaves, including long, slender palm fronds and broader, pointed leaves, are scattered around the edges of the composition. The overall aesthetic is modern and artistic, with a strong emphasis on color and texture.
